

IN 0. 123

MONDAY MORNING, OCT. 11, 1858.

As we have to call the attention of Box-holders at the Post Office, in this town, to the necessity of a prompt payment of their bills. We have previously stated, and it is a fact which all should know, that the credit which is given at the Post Office is done by the Post Master, as a matter of accommodation to our citizens. No credit is given by the Department, and whatever losses occur in the failure of persons to pay their postage bills, these come out of the pocket of the Post Master. At the end of the quarter, he has to have his accounts settled with the Department at Washington and they draw for the amount due, which he has to meet with promptness.

Often when his drafts come, box-holders are indebted to him in a large amount, sometimes a thousand dollars; this delay, therefore, causes him no slight inconvenience. Some persons permit their accounts to run two and three quarters without paying them. This is imposing altogether too much on good nature, and should not be indulged in any longer. The Post Master confers a material favor by allowing his accounts to stand three months, and at the expiration of that time, when his bills are placed in the boxes, they should be promptly paid, without a day's delay; because as there is no Government credit, he has a right to demand payment for every letter and paper before he delivers them, or, on pre-paid matter, before he receives it. If gentlemen wish the credit system, for 3 months, continued they must promptly settle their accounts at the close of the quarter.

We know that there is a large amount now due the Post Master on the last quarter's accounts, and it is absolutely necessary that these should be settled without the slightest delay. We trust that this notice will prove sufficient, and that we shall not have to allude to the subject again, hereafter.

Mr. Horace Greeley, the immaculate Whig, who is striving to rule the Whig party of the State of New York, has advised the Workingmen's Convention not to nominate Washington Hunt, the Whig candidate for Governor; but to nominate some other man, and to poll as many votes for him as possible. This is pretty much the same old story, which has been told by Mr. Greeley, who professes to be an ardent Whig, to give. This is Whig policy. Not the slightest confidence should be reposed in this man by the Whig party; he belongs, soul and body, to William H. Seward, than whom a more envenomed demagogue never lived, in any age or any land.

The population of this town is nine thousand five hundred and sixty-three, as we are informed by Daniel C. Dunham, Esq., who has just completed and corrected his returns.

Seward and John Van Buren have had an interview and come to an understanding. They are to unite the Abolition sections of their respective parties, and make a grand rally in support of the Syracuse ticket. Seward and the "Prince" are to stump the State immediately, and harangue the people on the "nigger question" in general, and the Fugitive Slave Law in particular. They then count on an extension that will ensure success at the coming election, and found a Buffalo platform for 1859, when the slavery question is again to be made the grand issue under the following Free Soil banner.

For President,
THOMAS H. BENTON;
For Vice-President,
WILLIAM H. SEWARD;
For U. S. Senator,
JOHN VAN BUREN.

This only verifies all that we have said. It shows Seward to be a contemptible demagogue of the very lowest order, ready to sell himself, at any time, to the highest bidder, provided he is to gain, personally, by the operation. Will the Whigs countenance such a fellow, any longer? We hope not. This is the result of the labors of Horace Greeley and Thurlow Weed, who are enemies in disguise, to the Whig party. Mark them.

The New York Mirror, speaking of the recent appointment of Capt. Smiley, at this place, says:—

He was born in this city, and has, for over twenty years, been trading to Havana, Acaha, Montevideo, Patagonia, and the Falkland Islands; is, probably, better acquainted than any American with the people, customs, &c., of that remote country; usually goes out in a pilot-boat or very fast schooner, and has, for years, carried the mail to the Brazils to Patagonia, and the Falkland Islands; keeps a regular journal, which, I think, would equal the history of almost any individual living, could you get him to publish it. He is well known at Washington as a gentleman of great energy and talent, a true capitalist, and a public station in those parts that any that could be selected. He now sails, for Newport, Rhode Island, where his pilot-boat schooner now is.

The Mirror adds, that Capt. Smiley has been appointed Consul for Rio Negro.

This is a mistake. The Consulship was offered Capt. Smiley, but he declined it; he was then appointed Commercial Agent, which he accepted. He is admirably qualified for the office, and from his long experience with business in that part of the world, he will discharge his duties in a highly satisfactory manner. We speak knowingly on this subject, having been acquainted with Capt. Smiley for many years.

The editor of the Providence Post, speaking of Jenny Lind's Concert in this city says:—

We felt proud of the music of our own Brass Band, as fully equal, in our taste, to that produced by the Germania Band at any of their late concerts here.

Judging from the above manifestation of taste, we were warranted in supposing that the editor would be as much pleased with a Concert by the Calatrumpan Band, as with one from the finest orchestra that Germany could produce. Well, there is no accounting for taste. —Newport News.

There is no accounting for anything, if you have no brains to account for it with. —Providence Post.

Butler be entirely without brains than to have such stuff as your head is filled with.

The Brig John Bate, Capt. Melville, arrived here from Georgetown yesterday morning. Charles Strout, a seaman on board, died the day before, and his remains are now on board. There are two other seamen on board sick with fever.

It is said that the invalid Thomas W. Dorr is lying dangerously ill at his father's house, and that there are no hopes of his recovery.

RACHEL AND CERITO COMING.—The Home Journal says:—"A friend of ours has seen a letter of inquiry, sent over for information as to the theatres and other accommodations. Rachel and Cerito having positively united in an enterprise, and proposing to come to New York without contract with any manager, and to bring their subordinates with them. As a change from music—of which the public are likely soon to have enough for awhile—how this great tragic actress of the world, and this first and most beautiful of dancers, would delight and take captive the city!"

COMPLIMENTARY.—The Boston Journal says:—

It is true that the firemen of the city of brotherly love, will not be on her arrival in that city?

The Philadelphia Pennsylvanian answers:—

"We think not. However bad the character of some of the runners with our fire companies may be, they are not in the habit of treating females to disagreeable sights. They leave that to the convent burners of Boston and Charleston."

PICTURE OF WASHINGTON for the California Senate.—This celebrated work of art, painted by Miss Stuart, of this town, from the original by her father, the distinguished Gilbert Stuart, has arrived in New York, and is to be forwarded, as soon as appropriately framed, to its destination. The picture was not purchased, as reported in some of the papers, but an amount was advanced upon it by some gentleman from California, who sent it at their own risk, the amount of purchase money to be decided upon when it arrives, and remitted to Miss Stuart. —Mercury.

The Boston Trumpet rejoices to number P. T. Barnum, the proprietor of the American Museum in New York,—the same who brings over Jenny Lind to this country,—among its friends. He was formerly a Universalist clergyman in Connecticut, where he suffered a long imprisonment, for an alleged libel on a judge of the Calvinistic faith. He served out the term of his confinement, and was set free. He went a penniless young man to New York; and by his own individual exertions has accumulated a vast fortune.

"Gentlemen of the jury," said a western lawyer, "you are met here on one of the most solemn occasions that ever happened since I had a brief. The defendant being a stout, able-bodied man, rushed like an assassin upon my client, who is a frail young widow and why did not the thunder of heaven blast him when he stooped towards her, stretched forth his arms like the forked lightning of Jupiter, and gave her a kiss on the mouth."

SUSPENDED ANIMATION, AND RESUSCITATION.—On Wednesday evening last, Mr. William Burdick, of this place, while eating beef steak at supper, was suddenly seized with suffocation. In a short time he was speechless, struggled violently, thrusting his hands convulsively into his mouth and breathing was entirely interrupted. Medical aid was immediately called, and as soon as practicable two physicians (residing in the neighborhood) were in attendance. He was now perfectly insensible; his countenance which had been darkly suffused, became pale, and all the gasping attempts at respiration had ceased. An instrument (a probang) was passed readily into the stomach, showing that the obstruction was in the wind-pipe and not in the gullet; and as all spasmodic action was over, one of the Physicians was enabled to feel a foreign substance in the opening of the wind-pipe, which he succeeded in seizing between the tips of his fore and middle fingers and with some effort removed; this proved to be a large piece of unseasoned beef. At this time the pulse had entirely ceased—not the slightest throbbing could be felt in the region of the heart; he was to all appearance lifeless, and was pronounced dead, by one of the medical attendants.

After dashing cold water freely upon his face as recommended in apparent death from lightning without any effect, artificial respiration was attempted. This was done by closing the nostrils, and the operator applying his own lips closely to the mouth of the patient, forcibly and successfully inflated the lungs; by pressure upon the abdomen the air which had been forced into the chest was driven out again, when inflation was again practiced. After this mechanical inspiration and expiration had been repeated a number of times, the attendants had the satisfaction to perceive a faint pulsation at the wrist, and a tremulous action of the heart, which after a few minutes were followed by a slight convulsive gasp, and slowly, and feebly, natural respiration was restored. It was not however until after he had been bled freely, that there was any return of consciousness. This took place suddenly, he raised his head, and opened his eyes, and said, "I am gone!" After the overwhelming feeling of suffocation and impending death Mr. Burdick has no recollection of any painful sensation, or of any of the circumstances which occurred, until after he was bled.

It is not known exactly how much time the above mentioned events occupied, but from the fact that one of the Physicians when summoned was in bed (having retired for the night) some estimate may be formed of the time that had elapsed. We give this case to our readers, that in the instances continually occurring of persons dying suddenly, found hung in suicidal attempts, or apparently drowned, efforts to restore life may not be too lightly abandoned. —Mercury.

WATER KNOWING.—It is said that a small piece of rosin dipped in the water which is placed in a vessel on the stove will add a peculiar property to the atmosphere of the room, which will give great relief to persons troubled with a cough. The heat of the water is sufficient to throw off the aroma of the rosin, and gives the same relief as is afforded by a combustion of the resin. It is preferable to combustion, because the evaporation is more durable. The same resin may be used for weeks.

A person hearing of the death of another, said to an acquaintance:—"I thought you told me—"sister had gone off." "I did," replied the latter, "but I forgot to mention that he went with it."

"Ma'am, your shawl's dragging in the mud." "Well, suppose it is, isn't it fashionable?"

"Would it were lawful to marry two wives," exclaimed an enthusiastic young bachelor, desperately in love with a couple of con try cousins. —"Try one, to begin with!" was the remark of a surly old Benedict.

Town meetings were held in Connecticut on Monday last, and the Whigs gained in several towns. The Hartford Courant notices Whig gains in ten towns, and a Locofoco gain in one town.

SOAP IT WELL.—On Lord Colerain's first visit to Drury Lane Theatre, his natural turn of pleasantry brought him into a contrete that gave him great uneasiness.

Seeing a gentleman in boots, enter the box where he was sitting—in the dress circle—and place himself on the seat just before him, rather abruptly, his ideas of etiquette could not well brook what he considered a breach of decorum; accordingly, he addressed him in the following words:—

"I beg, sir, you will make no apology."

"Apology, sir," replied the stranger —"apology for what?"

"Why," returned his lordship, pointing towards the boots, "that you did not bring your horse with you into the box."

"Perhaps it is lucky for you, sir," retorted the stranger, "that I did not bring my horse whip; but I have a remedy at hand, and I can pull your nose for your impertinence."

Some other gentlemen in the box now interfered, an exchange of cards took place, and both parties left the theatre.

Lord Colerain went immediately to his brother George, at Brooks', and having stated the particulars, begged his assistance to get him out of the scrape, "which," said he, "may end in bloodshed. I acknowledge," he continued, "that I was the first aggressor, but it was too bad I think, to threaten to pull my nose. What had I better do?"

"Soap it well," replied George, "and then it will easily slip through his fingers."

HOW TO STAY OUT LATE.—At a late hall in Paris, a very stout gentleman, proprietor of a bad cut-throat, a very charming wife, insisted, inconveniently, (at the close of a polka, in which the latter's breast-pin was quite too intimately made acquainted with the waist-coat buttons of a very nice young man,) that madame should take her leave, and return to the less objectionable bosom of her family.

"Never mind," she said to her partner, "invite me to dance the next quadrille, all the same—I'll find a way to dance!"

Slipping out while the sets were turning, she went into the gentlemen's dressing-room, found her husband's hat, and threw it out of the window. —Returning to the ball-room, she requested her spouse to get his hat, and call a carriage, averring that she would be ready to go at any time he would. —And indeed she was—but not until she had accepted partners for the next six dances, and gone triumphantly through them all without molestation.

We are astonished (says the Yarmouth Register) that the Boston papers have not published the following among their other remarkable stories: A coachman ascended the steps of one of the first class hotels, and harangued the crowd as follows:—"Here's the hand that lifted Jenny Lind out of the coach. Gentlemen, you can any of you have the privilege of kissing it for five dollars—children half price!"

TRICHOPEPHALUS OR MEDICATED COMPOUND.

INFALLIBLE for removing, invigorating, and beautifying the Hair, removing Scurf, Dandruff, and all obstructions of the scalp, and curing Eruptions on the Skin, Discharges of the Glands, Humors, and Intestines, and relieving Stings, Cuts, Bruises, Scalds, &c. With this preparation, "there is no such word as fall." The first journals in America, medical men of the highest eminence, prominent citizens of all professions, and ladies who have used it for years in their dressing rooms and nurseries, admit with one accord, that, for imparting vigor, gloss, luxuriance, and curl to the hair, eradicating scurf and dandruff, healing wounds, curing eczema, eruptions, itching, &c., and relieving discharges of the skin, the glands, and the muscles, it has no equal among the multitude of compounds advertised in the public prints, or used in private practice. In cheapness as well as efficacy, Barry's Trichophalus is unrivalled. The immense cash sales of the article, have enabled the inventor to supply it at retail at twenty-five cents per bottle, which is from fifty to one hundred per cent. less than the price of any other preparation now in use. The genuine medicine on the skin, directed by the following directions for the culture and preservation of Nature's choicest ornament, in which each bottle is enclosed, is alone worth the money.

The affinity between the medicines which constitute the skin, and the hair which draw its sustenance from this triple envelope, is very close. All diseases of the hair originate in the skin of the head. If the pores of the skin are not kept free, the blood and fluids do not circulate freely through the small vessels which feed the roots with nutritive and import life to the fibres the result is scurf, dandruff, itching, and the hair grows thin, dry, and harsh, and the complexion and entire healthiness as the case may be. Stimulate the skin to healthy action with the Trichophalus, and the topical vessels, restoring their activity, will annihilate the disease. In all affections of the skin, the pores of the skin must be kept open, and the glands, and the hair which draw its sustenance from this triple envelope, is very close. It is upon the skin, the muscular fibre, and the glands, that the Trichophalus has its specific action, and in all affections and injuries of these organs, it is a sovereign remedy.

Sold in large bottles—price 25 cents—at the Principal Office, 123 Broadway, New York. For sale by the principal Dispensaries and Druggists throughout the United States and Canada, and by R. J. TAYLOR, Newport, and J. H. & S. Son, Providence, R. I.

To the Hon. Court of Probate, of the Town of Newport to be had at Newport on Monday, September 24th 1850.

The Subscribing administrator of the estate of SILAS WARD, late of Newport dec'd, respectfully represents, that the amount realized from the sale of the inventory and other sources of said dec'd's estate, amounts to the sum of twenty-eight hundred and eighty-eight dollars, fourteen cents; and that the claims against said estate, allowed by the Commissioners, as appears by the report of this Hon. Court, amount to the sum of fifty-three hundred and twenty dollars and thirteen cents including sixteen hundred dollars, secured by Mortgage, and out of the said estate, he has paid to the said creditors, the sum of twenty-five hundred and thirty-five dollars and ninety-nine cents. Wherefore he prays this Hon. Court, that he may be authorized to sell so much of the said Estate, for the whole if necessary, of said Silas Ward, in this town, as shall be sufficient to cancel said claims, with the incidental expenses, and the balance of the said estate, to be paid to the said Administrator, Benjamin Mumford.

At a Court of Probate of the Town of Newport, Indira Mumford, September 18th, 1850.

The above petition of Benjamin Mumford, Administrator on the estate of Silas Ward, late of Newport, dec'd, is now received and referred for consideration to a Court of Probate of Newport, to be held at the Town Clerk's Office in Newport, on Monday the 24th day of October next, at 10 o'clock, A. M., and notice is ordered to be given to the creditors and parties interested by advertisement for three successive weeks, once a week in the Newport Daily News, that all persons interested may appear at said time and place and be heard.

A RARE CHANCE TO MAKE MONEY.

FOR SALE, cheap, an exhibition of novel and attractive characters, which can be travelled with and exhibited for a trifling cost, it is with an exception the only one in the country, and is offered for sale, as the proprietor has other business which prevents his travelling with it. It embraces more than 100 different views of various subjects, each view covering about 100 square feet, the whole forming a collection of nearly 100 splendid paintings which exhibits a greater variety of interesting subjects, and more extensive scenery than any exhibition in the country. If a young man with a small capital, desirous to make money or to any one capable of attending to it, it offers an inducement which is rarely met with. The cost of exhibiting it for one night is less than 25 cents. This price a $175 per one wintering, and profits may be made by Mr. PHILIP RIDER, 171 Thoma-S

A GOOD CHANCE FOR A BAKER.

FOR SALE a lot of land containing 10-12 acres of good land situated in the town of Whitehouse, Worcester county, Mass., it is within 3-4 miles distant from four very thriving manufacturing villages. It is one of the best and the other two, a very good one, very best opportunities for establishing a Bakery, there being no Baker-houses within 10 miles, the above piece of land is in a corner lot containing about 12 acres, there is an application for one acre, and wishing to reserve half an acre for myself, would sell the remaining 10-12 acres at the low price of four hundred dollars, one half the amount in cash, the balance next year, for a number of years if desired. The lot is well watered on three sides, on the other side is a strip of young Wood, some trees of good size, probably about 2-4 of acres in this part. There is a fine house on the building on the front, the land is very convenient to fence into pastures, and for raising for horses and cows; one and a half miles from a village. There is also a large number of trees, 7-8 ft. in diameter, and a very good one, the best of soft and hard wood is sold there for 25 cents. For further particulars apply to EDWARD BARKER, Second Street, Newport, or by post paid application to

A GREAT CHANCE TO MAKE MONEY.

To lease for five years, from October next, my Confectionery Store, in South Town Street, with a good run of custom as ever I had for the last 22 years, and always will have as long as the Germans are continued to be made like VOSE'S. Opposition after opposition has come from New York and other places, with advertising agents, but all to no purpose. I will sell the store, and all my fixtures, marble tables, cups, saucers, soda works, moulds, pyramids, baking utensils and everything to carry on the business with, at the "secrets of the order" or trade. Any one wishing to buy that don't understand the business can work with me through the Season and become initiated into the business, as to many things. The business has been going on for many years, and I give it up because it has been so. For further information apply to

Court of Probate Newport Sept. 9 1850.

BENJ. MUMFORD administrator of the estate of SILAS WARD, late of Newport, dec'd, presents his first administration account on said estate for allowance; the same is received, and referred for consideration to a Court of Probate, to be held at the Town Clerk's Office in Newport, on Monday the 7th day of October next, at 10 o'clock, A. M., and notice is ordered to be given to the creditors and parties interested by advertisement for three successive weeks, once a week for the Newport Daily News, that all persons interested may appear at said time and place and be heard.

B. B. HOWLAND, Prob. Clk.

TO THE LADIES.

WASHING, BLEACHING AND CLEANING FLUID, the greatest labor-saving article yet discovered. By its use, washing machines and boards are entirely dispensed with, and not one quarter the labor is required to do the washing of a family.

The fluid is a chemical compound of sufficient strength to extract all foreign substances from the clothes, by simply boiling a small quantity of it with the clothes, and without the slightest injury to the most delicate fabric.

The expense is not more than that of the soap ordinarily used, and besides this it will be seen that the great wear and tear of rubbing soap upon, and the use of the ponderous board, is wholly avoided, and an immense saving is thus made. It is completely the female's friend.

Warranted to give perfect satisfaction, or the money will be refunded.
